

Clean, safe, reliable water
Healthy creek ecosystems
Protection from floods

Today's SCVWD consolidates four agencies

WCD = Water conservation district
(all voter-approved)

Santa Clara Valley WCD

1929

- Built 8 reservoirs

South Santa Clara Valley WCD

- Built 2 reservoirs for recharge

1938

Central Santa Clara Valley WCD

- Built perc ponds

1949

Santa Clara County Flood Control and WCD

1952

- Enabled by state legislature
- Built flood control and water supply projects

annexation 1954

merger 1968

annexation 1987

renamed Gavilan Water District in 1980

SCVWD:
A consolidated, countywide water resource management agency

Three primary sources of water for Santa Clara County:

Imported

Local surface and groundwater

Recycled

State Water Project

Federal Central Valley
Project

San Luis Reservoir

Hetch Hetchy (S.F.)